

Crime Trends in Boston

The dataset consists of crime incident reports provided by the Boston Police Department (BPD) through the Analyze Boston crimes from June 14, 2015 to September 3, 2018.

Number of Crimes by District in Boston

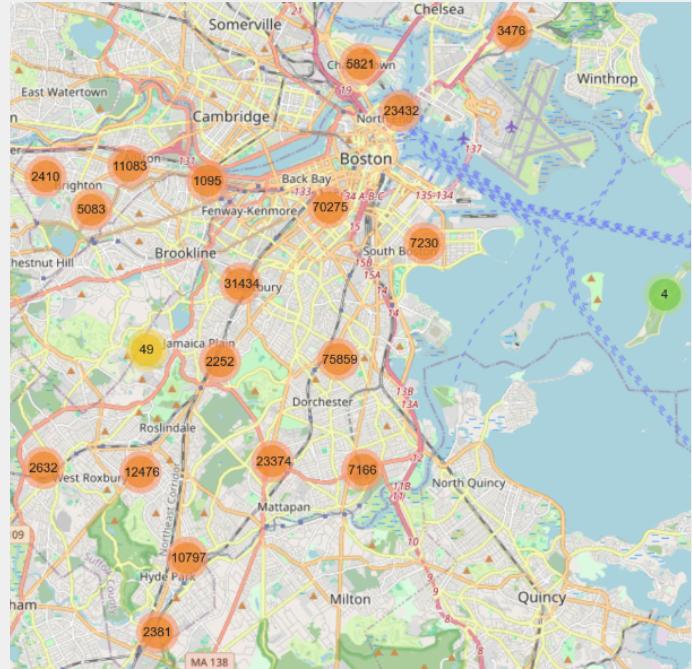

This Bar Chart shows the number of crimes in each district in Boston.

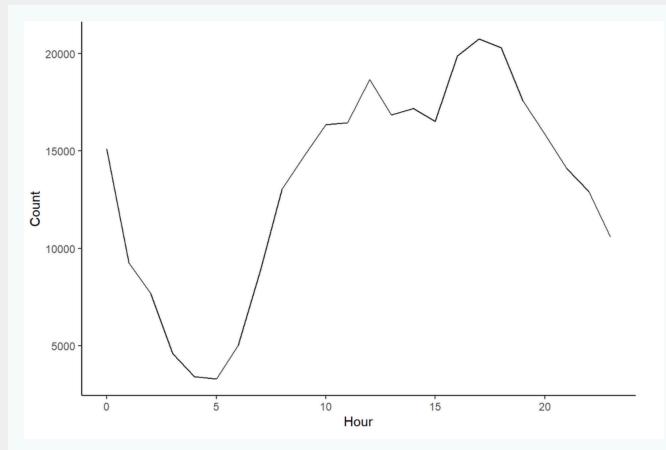

One interesting aspect of the data is the distribution of crimes across different districts.

We can use this information to identify the safest as well as the most crime-prone areas in the city.

Map of Crimes Reported in Boston

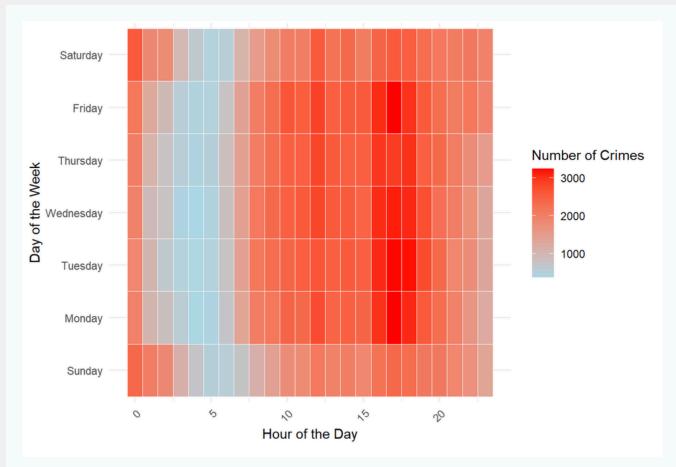

Number of Crimes by Hour of the Day

This line chart shows the number of crimes that occurred at each hour of the day, with the x-axis representing the hour and the y-axis representing the count.

It displays the number of crimes that occurred at each hour of the day, highlighting the trend of crime over the course of the day.

Number of crimes by day of the week and hour

This heatmap chart gives even a further insight and shows the frequency of crimes by day of the week and hour of the day.

This can help identify patterns in crime occurrence.